MPP TED CHUDLEIGH VISITS WITH STAFF AT MILTON DISTRICT HOSPITAL

MILTON, ON –Ted Chudleigh, MPP Halton, visited with nurses and physicians at Milton District Hospital (MDH) on May 24, 2013 as part of the Registered Nurses’ Association of Ontario (RNAO) Take Your MPP to Work Event, where politicians tour the hospital to experience first-hand nursing practice and to understand both the highlights and challenges of providing care.

“MPP Ted Chudleigh visited our patient care units at MDH where he had the opportunity to speak with staff and learn about their roles and job functions at the Hospital,” noted Janet Skupsky, MDH Chief Operating Officer. “We also reviewed plans for the MDH Expansion which will offer exceptional health services, and meet the needs of the growing Milton community providing residents with improved access to the care closer to home. It was a very comprehensive visit.”

Milton District Hospital is part of Halton Healthcare Services, which is also comprised of Georgetown Hospital and Oakville-Trafalgar Memorial Hospital.
